

BALDUFF GETS THE GOLD MEDAL.

Famous Chocolate Bonbons Win at the Exposition.

The good news was given out yesterday that Balduff's Chocolate Bonbons, so attractively displayed in the Manufacturers' building at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, had been given the gold medal, or highest award, by the jury on Awards. This recognition of this fine confectionery is well deserved.

For many years Mr. W. S. Balduff, situated at 1529 Farnam street, has been the leading confectioner in Omaha, with the fondest trade, and always selling the latest and most artistic productions of skilled bakers' and confectioners' labor.

Balduff's Chocolate Bonbons comprise an extensive line of many different styles—each one an original design, an attractive novelty of graceful form—of more than real merit, made of the best and purest materials under the personal supervision of Mr. Balduff. In addition to their superior elegance of shape and purity of materials they possess a delicacy of flavor and a rich, satisfying deliciousness that cannot be found in other chocolates. Balduff's Chocolate Bonbons represent advanced ideas in the confectioners' art. Their deliciousness suits the demands of the most fastidious better than any other confection. Every box of them that leaves the establishment receives the personal attention and has the guarantee of Mr. Balduff.

Few people are aware of the size of the Balduff plant. Its cleanliness and remarkable equipment of machinery and tools to the manufacture of pure candies and perfect pastries cause the wonder of all who visit and to all who have never seen the factory rooms Mr. Balduff extends a cordial invitation to call and be shown through.

County Commissioners.

Several of the directors of the Exposition company appeared at the office of the county commissioners, expecting the board to meet and to take some action on the company's application for a cancellation of taxes upon the exposition property. On account of it being so near the end of the month the board did not meet and the matter had to be put over until Tuesday morning, when the board will get together to wind up the month's affairs.

Only a bare quorum of the board was on hand. Thomas Hector said it took him all forenoon to come in from South Omaha, on account of a street car getting out of repair.

Shakespeare in Picture and Song.

A novel Shakespearean entertainment will be given at the First Methodist church next Tuesday evening, Nov. 29th. Stereoscopic views, illustrating the most famous scenes in the various plays, will be shown and will be explained and commented upon by Mrs. W. W. Keyser, while Mrs. J. J. Dickey will give explanatory readings from the text. Interspersed with this there will be Shakespearean music by some of Omaha's most gifted musicians. Admission, 25 cents.

Those having tickets for glassware from A. D. Morse's shoe store, 1517 Douglas, will please bring them to the store and make their selection.

Cutters Forever

"Let Hercules himself do what he may, the CAT will mew, the DOG will have his day." Now, we do not mean a Grimalkin (German cat), but we mean these would-be imitators and followers of "we, the originals." Well, we are original—persistent—indomitable cutters—but we do other things. We compound PRESCRIPTIONS—the HARD ONES. We sell rare drugs and chemicals and the NEW things—that's our long suit. SERVICE—that's another thing we pride ourselves upon. Customers are met in our store by clerks anxious to promptly serve them—without annoying delay. REMEMBER, as many graduated pharmacists employed in our store as in any other TWO (2) drug stores in Nebraska.
